

ONLINE MEBINAR

From Nicaea walking Together to Unity. The beginning of a new beginning.

February 8th, 2024 13:30 - 16:30 CET

register online, choosing your language - you will receive the link - please update your zoom app

REGISTER NOW

info.pasqua@together2025.org

The beginning of a new beginning - February 8th, 2024 - 13:30-16:30 Rome time

The Nicaean Council had highlighted the values of Christianity. We too are called today to highlight the Cross and Resurrection: hope in a time of anguish and conflicts.

OPENING GREETINGS: HAH Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew; HE Cardinal Kurt Koch, President of the Vatican Dicastery for Unity; Dr. Jerry Pillay, General Secretary of the World Council of Churches; Dr. Thomas Schirrmacher, General Secretary of the World Evangelical Alliance

KEYNOTE SPEECHES:

- A single prayer-house divinely enlarged Dimitrios Moschos, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, Greece
- The Council of Nicaea is a new Pentecost Mervat Kelli, Pontifical Oriental Institute, Rome, Italy
- A legacy of Nicaea: a Church that gives itself to Humanity Peter Miscik, Pedagogical College Eisenstadt, Austria
- A New Light upon Reality Piero Coda, Sophia University Institute Ecumenical Chair, Loppiano, Firenze, Italy
- Understanding together the Nicene Creed Augustinos Bairactaris, Center of Ecumenical, Missiological and Environmental Studies, Greece
- Nicaea and the Challenges of the Church's Global Mission Today Konstantinos Zormpas, Orthodox Academy of Crete, Greece
- A Protestant perspective on Nicaea Martin Hoegger, Theological Hight School of the French part of Switzerland
- DIALOGUE BETWEEN SPEAKERS AND PARTICIPANTS given the complex translations, questions from participants should be posted in the chat 15:30
- CONCLUSIONS 16:20

WEBINAR MODERATOR: Nausikaa Haupt, Ecumenical officer, Sweden

